CLARA BUTTON. LE MARIAGE SURPRISE

Text by Amy de la Haye

Illustrations by Emily Sutton

Clara Button loves drawing, making all kinds of things, and disguising herself. Invited to a very special wedding, Clara and Ollie prepare with the utmost care. Ollie fine-tunes a machine he has invented. And Clara, all dressed up, goes to the haberdasher's to buy some things. But disaster strikes on the eve of the big day.

How will Clara cope? She will need all her usual creativeness and daring to handle the surprising event that awaits her. Packed with amazing twists, this wonderful story cannot fail to delight and enchant.

Amy de la Haye is a former curator at the Victoria & Albert Museum in London and holds the Rootstein Hopkins Chair of Dress History & Curatorship at London College of Fashion.

Emily Sutton is an illustrator and studied at the Edinburgh College of Art, York College, and the Rhode Island School of Design.
